The Holocaust is one of the most well-known instances of genocide in history.

However, throughout most of WWII, people did not know much of what was going on. It wasn't until well after the D-Day invasion on June 6, 1944 that soldiers came upon concentration camps and began to report home the atrocities that had occurred.

The Holocaust was a dark period in modern history during which millions of people were systematically destroyed by Adolf Hitler's Nazi Germany. These people were targeted by the Nazis because of their religion, culture, and/or their lifestyle. We study the Holocaust to help the world remember the horror and destruction that evil will do when given the chance.
